

Annica Jonson
ajonson2@huskers.unl.edu

Education

Educational Specialist in School Psychology Expected August 2026
University of Nebraska-Lincoln

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology May 2022
University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Major: Psychology
Minors: Child, Youth, and Family Studies and Educational Psychology

Research Experience

Graduate Research Assistant August 2023-Present
Youth Wellness and Resilience Lab
Department of Educational Psychology, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
PI: Dr. Beth Doll, Ph.D.
Lab Objective: The purpose of the Youth Wellness and Resilience Lab is to improve the mental health and resilience of children within their classroom environments.

Graduate Research Assistant August 2023-Present
Nebraska Multi-Tiered System of Support (NeMTSS) Implementation Support Team
Nebraska Center for Research on Children, Youth, Families, and Schools
PI: Amanda Witte, Ph.D.
Responsibilities include:

- Evaluate empirically based academic and social/behavioral research
- Create and maintain an evaluative clearinghouse of interventions
- Collaborate with the Nebraska Department of Education to develop empirically based tools to be used in classrooms and schools
- Create research briefs for the Nebraska Department of Education's Professional Learning Community
- Participate in web development and design of a web-based intervention research platform

Work Experience

Registered Behavioral Technician July 2022-May 2023
Stride Autism Centers, Lincoln, Nebraska
Responsibilities included:

- Direct application of treatment plans related to life and social skills for children with autism ages 2-7.
- Collecting data from clients
- Providing support to clients and their family members.

- Working with a team of Board-Certified Behavior Analyst and other Registered Behavioral Technicians to collaboratively enhance the quality of client care and treatment.

Honors

College of Arts and Sciences Dean's List
University of Nebraska-Lincoln

2020, 2021, 2022