Dear BRNET Members and Friends of BRNET:

Thank you for being a part of the Bullying Research Network! In our June newsletter, you will find updates from the network.

Be sure to check out our website at http://cehs.unl.edu/BRNET/ for additional resources and announcements.

Featured Spotlight—Dr. Peter K. Smith

Peter K. Smith (Ph.D.) is Emeritus Professor of Psychology at Goldsmiths College, University of London, U.K. He has been involved in bullying research for 30 years. In the UK he helped produce the national anti-bullying pack Don’t Suffer in Silence (1994, 2nd edition 2000). He coordinated EU funded projects on The Nature and Prevention of Bullying (1997-2001) and Violence in Schools (1999-2002). Cyberbullying became an issue in the early 2000’s, and he chaired COST Action IS0801 on Cyberbullying (2008-2012) (http://sites.google.com/site/costis0801/). COST stands for Cooperation in Science and Technology, and these Actions bring together many (mainly European) countries to do joint research and training activities. In this Action 29 countries were involved, and the collaborations coming from this contributed to a rapid upsurge in research on cyberbullying, and ways of preventing it, in the last decade. He is currently on the Management Committee of a new COST Action CA18115, Transnational Collaboration on Bullying, Migration and Integration at School Level, chaired by James O’Higgins Norman (2019-2023). He chaired an Indian-European Research Networking Programme on Bullying, Cyberbullying, and Pupil Safety and Well-Being (2012-2015). He is currently part of a project Blurred Lives (2017-2019), financed by Erasmus+ and led by Dr Noel Purdy, aiming for pupil participation in designing cyberbullying resources (www.blurredlives.eu).

Although the COST IS0801 project was mainly with European and also Australian colleagues, he has also had the opportunity to carry out research with colleagues in Eastern countries, notably Japan, South Korea, Thailand, Hong Kong and Mainland China. He supervised doctoral theses by Tomoyuyki Kanetsuna from Japan, and Hyojin Koo and later Seung-ha Lee from South Korea, comparing bullying in these countries with the phenomenon in England. The words closest to bullying in some of these countries – for example ijime in Japan, or wang-ta in South Korea – differed somewhat in meaning from bullying; they seemed to emphasize more the collective nature of bullying, often involving social exclusion. This theme of cross-national or cultural differences is a current interest. It is explored further in two books that he co-edited:

World Anti-Bullying Forum Highlights

The 2nd World Anti-Bullying Forum was held in Dublin, Ireland on June 4-6, 2019 and it was an incredible event! You can find out more by following #WABF2019 and @wabforum on Twitter. Special guests included: Charlotte Petei Groninski Deputy Director of UNICEF, Anna Corrazza Bildt EU Parliament Coordinator for Children’s Rights, Lord Mayor of Dublin, and Mary Mitchell O’Connor, Minister of State for Higher Education in Ireland.

#WABF2019 by the numbers:

- 900+ participants including youth ambassadors, VIP guests, volunteers, and delegates
- Over 400 presentations, papers, workshops and posters
- Two industry sessions, with Facebook and Vodafone
- Three thematic sessions sponsored by UNESCO
- Plenary presentation by UNESCO on their International Bullying Report from 144 countries (Behind the numbers: Ending school violence and bullying)
- 8 UNESCO sponsored scholars from the Global South
- 4500 cups of coffee
- 104 tweets per hour
- 600 pints of Guinness

The Forum brought together researchers, practitioners, and students from across the world. It was inspirational to see the diversity of bullying research world-wide! A HUGE thanks to Professor James O’Higgins Norman, UNESCO Chair on Tackling Bullying in Schools and Cyberspace and the Chair of WABF2019 Organising Committee for a significant event!!!!

BRNET New Members!

BRNET has a current total of 216 members! Welcome to the BRNET, Dr. Bjereld!

New Friends of BRNET!

BRNET has a current total of 76 ‘Friends!’ Welcome, Kailee Groshans, Meytal Grimland, Joakim Strindberg, Johan Lidberg, & Peter Dankmeijer!

Please send recommendations for potential BRNET members (i.e., faculty, researchers, and clinicians who are conducting research on bullying or related topics) to Drs. Shelley Hymel, Susan Swearer, or to bullyresearchnet@gmail.com.

If you have recently joined BRNET and have not yet provided your information, please send the following to bullyresearchnet@gmail.com:

1) contact information that can be posted on the website;
2) a brief biography of you and your work;
3) a list of current/ongoing projects in this area;
4) an annotated bibliography of your work in this area (i.e., full reference plus a few sentences about the work), and;
5) relevant web-based links you would like to share.
Friends of BRNET

Friends of BRNET is a group of graduate students, administrators, parents, and individuals who are interested in learning more about the Bullying Research Network. Friends of BRNET receive our monthly e-newsletter. If you are interested in becoming a Friend of BRNET or want to refer someone to Friends of BRNET, please email Alia Noetzel, the BRNET Coordinator, at bullyresearchnet@gmail.com with the following information: name, title, address, and email address.

BRNET Member Grant/Funding Announcements

Receipt of funding facilitates the BRNET mission to conduct interdisciplinary research related to bullying and aggression, with particular attention being paid to the link between basic and applied research. Thus, the BRNET directors are excited to offer members a new opportunity to share grants (and other sources of funding) they have received for their research projects.

Funding varies across countries and is not limited to federal grants. If you are interested in sharing your grants or funding with other BRNET members, please send an abstract of the research funding along with the funding source to bullyresearchnet@gmail.com and we will post the information on our website.

BRNET MEMBER ANNOUNCEMENTS

(1) Special Issue of Aggression and Violent Behavior

We have a pleasure to present a Special Issue of Aggression and Violent Behavior titled “Bullying and cyberbullying: Protective factors and effective interventions” guest edited by Izabela Zych, David P. Farrington and Maria M. Ttofi. This Special Issue includes a series of narrative and systematic reviews focused on protective factors against bullying and cyberbullying, together with reviews of intervention programmes. Bullying and cyberbullying are harmful aggressive behaviours with serious short and long-term consequences. This Special Issue brings together some of the leading researchers in the field to fill some pressing gaps in knowledge and to provide a global vision about what is known, what needs to be discovered next, and what can be done to decrease bullying and cyberbullying. The table of contents is included below.

Feel free to contact Izabela Zych (izych@uco.es), David P. Farrington (dpfl@cam.ac.uk), or Maria M. Ttofi (mt394@cam.ac.uk) for requests, questions and comments regarding this Special Issue.

(2) Research Positions Available—University at Buffalo

Two new research positions for a NIH grant titled, “Peer and family adversity, neuroendocrine regulation and school readiness across the transition to kindergarten,” are available. The Principal Investigator is BRNET member, Dr. Jamie Ostrov. Please share these postings with anyone who might be interested:

Research Support Specialist (“Project Coordinator”): http://www.ubjobs.buffalo.edu/postings/19820

Research Technician 1: http://www.ubjobs.buffalo.edu/postings/19765
(3) Request—Cyberbullying Prevention & Intervention Programs

Dear Colleague,

I am a principal investigator on a cyberbullying/cybervictimization project with Directions Evidence and Policy Research Group. We have been engaged by Public Safety Canada to compile an inventory of prevention and intervention programs that address cyberbullying and cybervictimization. I am writing to enlist your help in identifying such programs in Canada and internationally.

I would be grateful if you would identify any program or programs that are known to you and provide contact information for the person most knowledgeable about the program. If you have a link to a site where the program is described, we would appreciate receiving that as well. Please respond to cyberbullying-programs@directions-eprg.ca.

We are aware that your time is precious and requests such as this one take some of that valuable time. I hope that you will agree that the harm caused by cyberbullying/cybervictimization is worth the time needed to respond to our request.

Many thanks,

Charles Ungerleider

(4) Project of Interest—Bullying Awareness Project in Turkey

Please see the attached research summary from researchers in Turkey, including BRNET member, Dr. Tanrikulu. This bullying prevention awareness project was carried out by Kurtuluş Primary School in Gaziantep-Turkey on May 2019, under the supervision of İbrahim Tanrıku, PhD (Gaziantep University-Turkey). They would like to inform researchers by sharing photos to ignite innovative ideas to prevent bullying all over the world. For more information about the project details and the findings, please contact İbrahim Tanrıku, PhD by sending an e-mail to ibrahimtanrikulu@gmail.com.

(5) Job Opportunity—Post-doctoral position at Linköping University

Linköping University in Sweden advertises a postdoc position at Dr. Thornberg’s school bullying research lab at the Department of Behavioral Sciences and Learning. The actual Postdoc position is focused on bullying among children and adolescents. At the department, there is a research group on school bullying that uses theories and research methods from various disciplines and traditions, including developmental psychology, educational psychology, social psychology, sociology and social anthropology. The research group is involved in national and international networks and collaborations. The postdoctoral researcher is expected to conduct research in collaboration with researchers within the research group at the department. The position requires a doctorate degree. The postdoc is in Education. However, in Sweden, Education is a multidisciplinary field, which means that the applicants can have a doctorate degree in various disciplines such as Education, Psychology, Sociology, Social Work etc. The doctorate shall have been obtained no longer than three years before the expiration date of the application. Scientific merits, publications in international peer-review journals in particular, that are relevant to the research field of bullying among children and adolescents or adjacent research fields about children’s and adolescent’s social development, social relationships, peer victimization, violence, aggression, or peer groups will be particularly taken into account when recruiting. Experiences of participation in national and international research projects/collaborations is desirable. The application must be received at latest 13th of June 2019 (Swedish time). For more information, see: https://liu.se/en/work-at-liu/vacancies?rmpage=job&rmjob=10832&rmlang=UK

Thank you for your involvement in the Bullying Research Network! If you have any news, information, research, suggestions for new members, or other materials that our members would find useful, please do not hesitate to email us at bullyresearchnet@gmail.com and we will include it in our newsletter and/or on our website.

Most sincerely,
