EDPS 209: Strategies for Academic Success

Summer of 2020 and/or 2020-21 Academic Year

The student(s) in this position will have primary instructional responsibilities for teaching EDPS 209 (Strategies for Academic Success). Applicants can be pursuing a masters or doctoral degree in any area but should have a strong commitment to providing quality instruction. Prior teaching experience is highly desirable. Having taken learning courses, especially Teaching Learners to Learn (EDPS 855), is also advantageous. The assistantships are half time (20 hrs. per week) and could include online instruction. Additionally, there are two sections available for the 2020 summer First Five-week term. For more information contact Dr. Ken Kiewra at kkie1r@unl.edu.

APPLICATIONS:
Complete the application form (below) indicating your interest in receiving a 209 Teaching Assistantship. Include a paragraph that describes your qualifications. Please also let me know how many years remain in your program. Reviews of applications will begin no earlier than Friday, March 6, 2020.

Submit the application form as an attachment to an email with the subject line of 'DLS 209 TA' to:
