

Presentation by Reza Badiee
March 4, 2:00pm-3:00pm
139 Teachers College Hall

"Human Rights and Peace"

Mr. Badiee will speak about his life and activism in Iran. He will discuss the years of torture he experienced and the meanings he gleaned from it. He will also discuss Iran's and the Middle East's past, present, and future, and talk about what needs to be done.

The Ethnic Minority Affairs Committee (EMAC) looks forward to seeing you there. Please contact Dr. Doug Kauffman (dkauffman2@unl.edu) if you have any questions.

Biography

Reza Badiee grew up in Iran. This environment became his first motivation to become a human rights activist. As an activist, he was one of many Iranians who was subjected to torture, beatings, and in many cases execution. He has dedicated his life to organizing groups fighting for freedom and democracy. Although he has been tortured in Iran for his political activism, he has never stopped advocating for human rights and peace.
