THE TEACHER SCHOLARS ACADEMY at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln is about innovating communities through teaching. The Teacher Scholars Academy aims to expose future teachers to Nebraska’s schools, communities and changing demographics through experiential learning opportunities. As a result of active participation in learning opportunities, Scholars will become innovative practitioners, ready to empower future communities.

SCHOLARSHIP
Acceptance to the UNL Teacher Scholars Academy is awarded with the following scholarship:

- Up to 120 CREDIT HOURS of in-state tuition
- Up to $8,000 ANNUALLY for room and board, books, and fees

EXPERIENCE

- Cohort-Living Community in University Housing
- Academy Seminar
  - Mental Health and Wellbeing
  - Diversity, Equity and Inclusion
  - Community Support
  - Faculty Engagement
- Peer Mentorship with Upper-Class Scholars
- Service in Nebraska’s Schools & Communities
- Shared Coursework with Peers
- Leadership Opportunities
HOW TO APPLY

October 1, 2020
APPLICATIONS OPEN ON MYRED

- Provide a RESUMÉ or activity list highlighting your PAST ACHIEVEMENTS AND SERVICE to your surrounding communities.

- Create a personal YOUTUBE VIDEO 5-7 minutes in length that answers the following:
  - How will you use your scholarship to make an impact in education?
  - What or who inspired you to be a teacher?
  - Describe the impact you hope to make in your proposed content area.

February 1, 2021
APPLICATIONS CLOSE

All applicants will be reviewed and finalists will be invited to participate in virtual interview days. These interview days will occur the last weekend of February or the first weekend of March. Final interviews and participation in virtual interview day activities are required to be considered for the scholarship. Please check our social media platforms for more updates.

@UNLTeacherScholars