

The International Coalition for Multilingual Education and Equity Presents:

Summer Book Clubs

Professional Learning Communities for Educators

This summer, ICMEE will offer a broad menu of professional learning resources online for teachers. This includes several Book Clubs in which educators can build community as they learn about, reflect, and engage with texts focusing on topic of anti-racism and anti-bias, with a focus to improve our schools and communities. Ready to get started?

Go to: <http://icmee.unl.edu/> and use Group ID: 435437 to register.

Book Clubs

- The Racial Healing Handbook
- How to Be an Anti-Racist
- We Want to Do More than Survive
- Unpack Your Impact
- Cultivating Genius
- Reading, Writing, and Racism

Book Club Road Map

- Getting Started
- Introduction #CurriculumSoWhite
- Chapter 1: Curricular Tools of Whiteness
- Chapter 2: The Iceberg
- Chapter 3: Reframing Understandings of Race Within Teacher Education
- Chapter 4: Disruption Whiteness in Teacher Education
- Chapter 5: Humanizing Racial Justice in Teacher Education
- This book club is grounded in the discussion guide created by Tanya Maloney and Bree Picower

Collaborative

Asynchronous

Certificates Available

To learn more visit <https://cehs.unl.edu/icmee/summer-professional-learning/>
Book Club is available for FREE to all participants

Discounted Books available for purchase through Indigo Bridge Book Sellers
<https://www.indigobridge.org/shop/summer-learning-program>